Discussion Guide

Getting Started

When you graduated from high school, what would you say was your primary goal in life? How, if at all, has that life goal changed over the years?

Discussion

Pastor Rex suggested that pleasing God, honoring God, and glorifying God are three ways of stating the same thing, but with different nuances. Do you agree with his explanation of the different nuances? Why or why not?

What other reasons would you give for why pleasing God should be our primary goal in life?

When facing trials, have you found yourself with competing goals—the goal to please God and the goal to escape the trial? How have you tried to prevent the latter goal from becoming the primary goal?

Read Rom. 14:13-18; Col. 1:10-12; and 1 Thes. 4:1-8.
Identify what each passage says about the type of life that pleases God and then discuss which areas you need to work on the most both individually and as a group.

How can you assist one another in developing a plan with specific steps to reach the goal of pleasing God with your life?

Interact with the following statement:

“God is easier to please than you think.”
