

Group Prayer Requests

One Another-ing Part II

Encourage One Another

I Thessalonians 5:11 (825)

June 10, 2018

Why Is Encouragement So Important?

God _____ it.

God _____ it.

We _____ it.

~ Come _____ someone, come to someone's _____.

Encouraging One Another Strategy

❖ _____ Of...

~ Speech meant to produce a _____ effect

~ Words that would stand up in _____

ENCOURAGE ONE ANOTHER APPLICATIONS IDEAS

1. Thank someone in person this week for their ministry service or how their faith has encouraged you.
2. This week send or speak words of endurance to someone you know who may be discouraged or facing a difficult challenge in their lives.
3. Send or speak specific words of hope (from God's Word) to someone this week.
4. Commit to be a person that encourages others by showing up more consistently to something like Church, Community Group, Gospel Project, Youth Group, etc.

Discussion Guide

Getting Started

Discuss a time in your life when someone's encouraging words made an impact on you.

Discuss a time in your life when someone's presence made an impact on you.

Discuss times in your life when you sensed you were spiritually running on fumes. How important was encouragement during these times?

Read Proverbs 15:4, 16:24, 18:21

Discuss the potential power of our words when it comes to encouraging others.

Read Philippians 1:3

Some would say that we should serve or participate and not expect recognition.

Why should we take the time to encourage others through words of recognition?

Read II Timothy 2:1

II Timothy most likely contains the last words that Paul communicated to Timothy.

Why are enduring words to others so encouraging?

Read Romans 15:4

What would be some of your favorite words of hope (from God's Word) that you like to share with others?

Read II Kings 6:15:17

Why was Elisha's servant upset?

What did God do to encourage him?

How are you encouraged when you see others serving, participating, and showing up for church and church events?

Do you think that church people underestimate the impact their presence has on the morale of others in the church? If yes, why?

While we are not responsible for the presence habits of others, what can we do to influence them in a positive way?